EDITORIAL

Just before going to print this month the sad news broke that Ken Down had passed away. Ken had lived in the village all his life. Tony Brealy, who has known Ken for most of his life, recalls that they were at school at the same time, though in different years, and they were near neighbours for close on 50 years when Tony lived in Western Road. He remembers taking Ken, aged 12, to his first football match in Exeter, thereby nurturing a life-long love of the sport.

Ken was always very involved in village life. He was a Parish Councillor for many years, serving two terms. He was also a Church Warden and the Captain of the Bell-Ringing team, though he had been unable to ring recently; he last rang on 2 July. He could often be seen carrying out repairs or maintenance around the church. Indeed, he did all he could to ensure that the village gave a good impression to any passing visitors. He was also a member of the Village Hall Committee for many years, serving as chairman until November 2022. He was a passionate advocate of the need for a new Village Hall.

Ken was a farmer through and through – the way he cared for his animals and his farm was legendary, ably assisted by his wife Margaret. He regularly contributed items on farming to the newsletter under the banner ‘Farming from the Hedge’. Our thoughts and condolences go to Margaret and the family. He will be much missed.

VILLAGE HALL NEWS

AUTUMN SHOW

Thanks to the thirty-seven exhibitors, many of whom had never exhibited before, who made the Village Hall look absolutely beautiful with 199 entries covering fruit, vegetables, flowers, home-craft and a children's section. Thanks also to the many people who turned out to see them; without the spectators it would be meaningless. Contributions through the auction, draw, refreshments and entrance money raised the princely sum of £179, this goes towards the day to day running and maintenance of the Hall. It makes the volunteer Trustees' efforts feel worthwhile.

Thanks also to all the committee members who worked so hard to ensure the show was a success: Margaret Harris, Martyn & Sue Down, Sally Rowden, Simon Allanson-Bailey, Erica Eden and David Bowyer who took the beautiful photographs shown here.

ZEAL MONACHORUM W.I.

Former villager Colin Andrews was our speaker for the September meeting. His knowledge regarding Morris Dancing was incredible. We learnt of its inception hundreds of years ago and how women were only welcomed into this in the 20th century. He entertained us with his musical talent using various instruments.

A discussion took place about our hosting of the Red Earth Group Meeting in October; this is where all institutes within that group meet twice a year. There will be supper, a speaker and a competition. It all adds up to making new friends within a larger group.

Next month, on 4 October, Dr. Paul Cleave will speak on cooking and recipes during WWII. In November we will meet at the Waie Inn for a friendly game of skittles. I am delighted that we have received three new visitors and it is hoped they will swell our ranks in the near future. Our sub-committee who dealt with our entry for the Okehampton Show were rewarded by coming joint 2nd - something to add to our archives.

When you receive this copy, summer will have almost come to an end, the daylight is getting shorter, the darker evenings mean less time outdoors in the garden. It appears that just as schools begin the autumn term the warm, dry sunny weather arrives.

ZEAL PHOTOGRAPHIC CLUB

At some point in the early summer of 2022, I popped around to Michael Russell's cottage on a) the pretext of enjoying some wine and then b) we ended up discussing the formation of a photographic club in Zeal Monachorum. Or was it the other way around, I can't remember! Anyway, Michael was aware of some individuals who wanted to improve their photography and thought that we should form a small group in Zeal. There were not enough people to justify a formal club, or hiring the village hall; meetings have had to be held in a private house, usually on the second Monday of each month.

On the first meeting, everyone was asked what they wanted to do. A basic list emerged and we started off on composition, exploring the work of some famous photographers. We looked at examples from Ansel Adams and Fay Godwin on landscape, Bill Brandt and Henri Cartier-Bresson on people, plus the humorous approach of Elliot Erwhitt, amongst others. Next, we considered exposure, looking at pictures submitted on the web that had their settings included; there was discussion on framing, choice of venue, what makes a good image, the importance of using RAW capture, or what the camera sensor records in machine language. On the black art of post-production —AKA how to lie about the image—various apps such as Lightroom, Photoshop, DarkTable and GIMP were covered [both the latter are free]; all handle RAW processing, but are a pain to learn, though results always make the effort worthwhile.

On 14 June we had our first field trip to Hartland Quay for a scenic sunset that eventually happened at 9.25 pm, after which we retired to the Wrecker's Retreat. The emphasis has always been on making an image enjoyable. On 11 August we headed out to Combestone Tor on another field trip and then for dinner in the Forest Inn.

We are planning to go to an exhibition given by Chris Chapman, a well-known local photographer. We were also tasked with producing images of identifiable scenes in and around Zeal Monachorum for the Fishing Club 224 calendar, which has now been completed (See Page 17). If you would like to contact us, please leave a text on 07707 554313 or 07850 142544.

October Garden Advice from Bow Garden Centre

1. Cut back perennials that have gone over, this will help them to flourish next Spring.
2. Rake up fallen Autumn leaves and collect them to turn them into leaf mould.
3. Be prepared for the first frost and bring tender plants into your greenhouse, protecting others with fleece and frost jackets.
4. If you haven't already, now is a great time to invest in a compost tumbler or compost bin – left over harvest, leaves and cuttings will get your compost off to a fantastic start!
5. Divide herbaceous perennials to multiply your plants and encourage healthy growth next year.
6. Plant up seasonal bedding plants for a display of stunning colour, available in store now.
7. Plant Spring flowering bulbs now if you haven't already - it's not too late! Bow have a range of bulbs and planting aids to help make this job a breeze. Don't forget to cover ground bulbs with bark mulch to protect against frost.
8. Use Autumn feed to treat and help protect your lawn against moss. It's also your last chance to mow the lawn before Winter sets in. Cut the lawn slightly higher than in Summer to help protect against frost. It's also a good time to trim hedges.
9. Protect garden furniture, BBQs, chimineas and water features with covers. A wide selection of covers are in store now.
10. Harvest any remaining fruit you have before it perishes. Use Kilner Jars to make jams and chutneys to enjoy throughout the year.

Bow Garden & Aquatic Centre is a great place for all your garden essentials, including an expanded range of Devon-grown plants. Also, plenty of bulbs, seeds, gardening tools, garden buildings and everything you need for gardening, plus fish and pet supplies, an award-winning Waterside Cafe, and Post Office services.

CREDITON FOODBANK

As I write this, ten days into the first month of Autumn, the many trees in my garden at the moment remain very green. I am looking forward to watching the gradually changing colours, and then suddenly it seems to blaze into gold, bronze, reds and yellows. Then, as in past years, we can get high winds and the leaves fall and create a dazzling carpet of colour.

In these difficult times of rising costs and whatever other problems we may have, I hope those sudden visions of beauty can lift our spirits and enable us to take a moment to stand and stare. How lucky we are to be living in the midst of all that surrounds us, and perhaps forget for a while the troubles we may be facing.

As there wasn't a Village Market in August, I was unable to put the Pink Box out for those who would normally donate. I can however report that there was a delivery every single week to the Foodbank. So, I thank those who left food on my doorstep, even a full bag was left at the Church gate. Thank you to those who donated money which amounted to £30. I have a weekly pick up of amazing generosity which never fails to astound the volunteers.

I have said in the past it is not about how much we donate but that we donate. Every single tin will bless someone. Do you know what a wonderful thing it is when someone stops me to give because they once were in that position and had never dreamed it would happen to them. So yes, there is an end. May God Bless you each and every one from Christians working together in our area of Crediton.

We don't have a book review this month, but we do have this delightful poem by David McCord called 'Books fall open'

*Books fall open, you fall in,
Delighted where you've never been;
Hear voices not once heard before,
Reach world on world through door on door;
Find unexpected keys to things
Locked up beyond imaginings.
What might you be, perhaps become,
Because one book is somewhere?
Some wise delver into wisdom, wit,
And wherewithal has written it.
True books will venture, dare you out,
Whisper secrets, maybe shout
Across the gloom to you in need
Who hanker for a book to read.*

FISHING CLUB CHAT

Hi All

After our break-in and vandalism, we are in the process of having solar cameras installed at the lake, at considerable cost. It is a shame that we have had to take these steps, as we are only trying to provide a wildlife facility for all. A big thank you to Adam Huntington-Whiteley who is helping us with the installation. We will be repairing the doors to the clubhouse with metal to deter further break-ins.

Our fishing club calendar is now ready and available. This year the pictures have been taken by members of the Zeal Photographic Group and profits will be divided between the fishing club and The Fishermens' Mission, who look after retired and ill ex-trawlermen and their families. We have had to increase the price of the calendar this year to £8, due to a rise in paper costs. Please ring either Ken or Jane on 01363 82400 or 07749329832. Good fishing.
